

Brad Martin

Brad retired in January 2010 after 39 years with Canadian Pacific Railway. During his career at CPR, Brad worked in many areas of the railway – Operations, Marketing & Sales, Seminar Leadership, Strategic Planning, Business Development, Executive Support, Service Design, Safety, Regulatory Affairs and Contingency Planning.

In his last 10 years at CPR, Brad's concentrations/responsibilities were in Railway Safety Management Systems development and maintenance, Safety and Operations Risk Assessment and Management, Contingency Planning and Strike Plan development, and Health, Safety, Security and Environmental Audit Control.

Brad earned a Bachelor of Commerce degree (Transportation major, Industrial Relations minor) in 1978 from the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, BC. He also completed the CPR Executive Learning Program at the Richard Ivey School of Business, University of Western Ontario in London ON, along with many continuing education and internal learning programs; The One-Day MBA, Beyond the Bottom Line, The Portable MBA, Emergency First Aid, CPR and AED, to name just a few. In addition, Brad acquired a Canadian Commercial Pilot's License (now expired) and is a certified NCCP Level 3 Softball Coach. Brad is married and has two grown daughters.

Brad Martin is located in Calgary, AB.

