

Nick Martin

Forty-two years of class one railway experience. Versatile training specialist with twenty years experience in adult education.

Extensive background in transportation technology, railway safety rules and regulations.

Accomplished member of several government, community and volunteer boards and committees.

Directed workshop presentations for trainers and managers across North America.

Assigned extensively as subject matter expert in development of operating personnel new hire training programs in Canada and United States.

Certificate in Adult and continuing Education University of Alberta, with distinction. Leadership role on team which developed employee and family assistance program at Canadian Pacific railway. Developed, scheduled and delivered train the trainer program (eight hour course) to fifty trainers, short line managers and Canadian Pacific managers in eastern United States. Trustee school district five in South East Kootenay. Board of directors United Way of Canada in Cranbrook. Board of directors East Kootenay Alcohol and Drug counseling service. Chairman joint Employee and Family assistance program. Board of directors/coach minor ball, soccer and boxing.

Nick Martin is located in Cranbrook, BC.

