

Raymond Labrie

Raymond has over 36 years in the railway industry working as a Trainman/Conductor, Divisional Trainer, Yardmaster/Train Yard Coordinator, Supervisor dangerous goods, Rules instructor for all departments including management, Training Development Officer, Manager Training for Running Trades employees and Rules for all departments. Raymond also has experience as a Rail Traffic Controller.

Raymond has attended numerous courses on training delivery, coaching and engineering effective instructions as well as creating online training. He is fluent in English, French and Spanish.

Since 2006, as a consultant with CHTR, Raymond has been involved in creating training material and has provided training for Railway Conductor programs in partnership with NAIT and numerous industrial railway training sessions for railway operations including locomotive/trackmobile operation and track inspection.

Raymond is located in Calgary, Alberta.

